

A Leading Oilfield Services company is seeking an Assistant Operations Manager within their Drilling Services division. This position will be based in Estevan, Saskatchewan and will be responsible for the coordination of Drilling services, technical support and development of new product line opportunities.

The successful candidate will require:

- Thorough knowledge of Drilling Systems products and services with a minimum of 5 years Directional Drilling experience in an oilfield service operations environment.
- Proven experience in managing financial performance of an operation, ensuring revenue and contribution targets are consistently achieved.
- Excellent communication, organization, troubleshooting and teamwork skills.
- Positive attitude and a high degree of self-discipline and motivation.
- Previous experience in a management or leadership position is an asset.

This position will provide a competitive compensation and benefits package along with excellent training opportunities.

Interested applicants can send a resume and cover letter along with salary expectations to (403) 693-5611.